

LITERARY FIGURE DRESS-UP DAY GUIDELINES

1. Your costume must be of a literary figure that is part of the Archway Glendale curriculum, or a character from a book in the library.
2. Your costume should cover at least the same areas as the Archway polo and shorts/skirts (just above the knee). No skinny jeans.
3. Items in your costume should not have any logos on them.
4. You may wear non-uniform shoes (such as sandals), provided that they are appropriate for your character.
5. No masks are permitted. No face paint is permitted unless it is an integral part of the costume.
6. Small props are allowed, but should be put away during class.
7. Students who do not follow the guidelines for dress-up day may be sent home.
8. You are not required to dress-up.
9. Gentlemen should dress up as male figures and ladies should dress up as female figures.
10. Students should be careful not to wear any costume that could be offensive to others.
