Headmaster's Corner

The recent Great Hearts Family Surveys record the most positive (overwhelmingly) responses to teacher and school performance Archway Glendale has ever received. On nearly every question asked, your answers significantly beat the network average, and this is a great network so that is no small achievement.

Thank you for your overwhelming support. I promise you we will continue to work to get even better. We want every student to maximize his learning potential, to love goodness, truth, and beauty, to be a life-long reader and learner, and to be engaged in his own growth as a student and a healthy, happy human being.

Your partnership is one of our secret (not so secret) weapons! Keep strengthening support for student success! Keep being the wonderful, loving, and supportive parents your children (our students) need you to be!
